SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. As a special condition of supervised release, the defendant shall participate in a program approved by the U.S. Probation Office for the treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency or alcohol dependency, which will include testing to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol if such treatment is deemed appropriate by the probation officer. If it is determined by the probation officer that the defendant is in need of a residential drug/alcohol treatment program, the defendant shall reside in and participate in such treatment as directed by the probation officer and remain in the treatment facility until successfully discharged.
2. You shall attend and participate in a mental health treatment program and/or sex offender treatment program as approved and directed by the Probation Officer. You shall abide by all program rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program, including submission to polygraph testing, at your own expense, to determine if you are in compliance with the conditions of release.
3. You shall not possess or use a computer with access to any “online computer service” at any location, including employment, without the prior written approval of the U.S. Probation Office, to include any Internet services provided, bulletin board system, or any other public or private computer network.
4. You shall have no contact with children under the age of 18, and shall not go to parks, malls, schools, or other places where children congregate without the permission of the U.S. Probation Office.
5. You shall not own or possess any type of camera, photographic device and/or equipment, including video recording equipment, without the approval of the Probation Officer.
6. You shall not possess any form of pornography, adult or otherwise.
7. You shall register as a sex offender in compliance with the state law in which you reside.
8. You shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of your person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of probation. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation.
9. You shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, you shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U.S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
